IFYE Will Speak To H. D.'s 15th

Tommy Coffman, 4-H member and IFYE from Roanoke County who has returned from Uruguay will be one of the speakers at the meeting of District III Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs whn it meets in Johns Auditorium, at Hampden Sydney College on Wednesday, April 15.

The theme for the meeting starting at 9:30 a.m. is "Enriching Our Lives Through Federation Programs". The program will center around the Federation Programs of work as follows:

FAMILY LIFE — The Devotion Art In Daily Living — "Yours For a Song", A visual program on birds, presented by Mrs. Dorothy Allen from the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries.

Health — Fitness for the Homemaker, Demonstrated by Physical education students from Longwood College under the direction of Miss Mary Heintz.

International — Tommy Coffman, an IFYE from Roanoke County who returned from Uruguay on April 1, will show slides and relate his experiences in South America. Pennies for Friendship will be presented following his talk.

Woodmen Circle Holds Meeting

The Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle had its regular monthly meeting last Thursday, April 1, at the home of Mrs. Nannie Mae Smith. There were three officers present and two new members.

After the business and opening and closing exercises, the meeting adjourned until next month.

Millner To Speak In State Contest

Ronald Millner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Millner, o' Route 1, Appomattox, will represent the Southside Area in the Annual FFA State Public Speaking Contest to be held on the V. P. I. Campus in June during the Rally of the Virginia Association. Future Farmers of America. Ronald will speak on the subject "Agriculture — Vital to America."

Young Millner won the right to compete in the State contest by winning the Southside area public speaking contest, which was held at Gretna High School on April 2. Other winners in the area contest were: second Robert Montgomery of Franklin County on a talk, "Farmer Cooperatives;" third place, Riley Wilson of the Cumberland FFA Chapter with the subject, "Agricultural Industry"; James Finney of the Brosville FFA Chapter placed fourth with his talk, "The Peace Corp — A New Challenge to Future Farmers".

The public speaking contest is a leadership activity of the FFA. A contestant's speech must be a product of his own efforts, be at least 8 minutes but not more than 10 minutes in length, and be on an agricultural subject that is timely. Each contestant is allowed five minutes at the conclusion of his talk to answer questions that are directed to him by the judges. Each talk is judged on content, composition, speaking ability of the contestant and response to questions by the contestant.

Hardware Hires New Employee

W. Lewis Martin, of Appomattox, a dairyman for 19 years is now employed by Poe's Hardware Company. Although he is in an entirely different type of work, Mr. Martin says he looks forward to association with the firm and that many friends have visited him well in his new position.

Mrs. Owen Delegate To Annual Meeting

Mrs. W. A. Owen, of Concord, will be a delegate to the 24th Annual Meeting of the Virginia Conference, Woman's Society of Christian Service. One thousand Methodist women are expected to assemble at the Alan B. Shepherd Civic Center, Virginia Beach, April 20-22.

Reverend Ernest K. Emurian, a speaker in Appomattox last year, has written a drama, "The Supper That Wasn't" which will be presented in commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the organization of the Society and Wesleyan Service Guild. Mr. Emurian's church, Cherrydale Methodist, will furnish the cast for the production.

MRS. LILY FRANCES MARTIN

Local Resident Born On April 9

Mrs. Lily Frances Martin was born in Appomattox on an historic day in the county's nation's history, April 9. Her birth took place just five years after General Lee and General Grant met at the McLean House to end the War Between the States. Now ninety-four years old, Mrs. Martin, lives in one room of a 70 year old log house just off Route 24, and close to the Parkway Motel and Restaurant. She has always lived in log houses, all of them within a few miles of her present home.

Her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Mann, Sr., lives in a home on the same property, and takes care of her mother. Mrs. Martin has been unusually vigorous and active during her long life, and only in the past year or so has been more or less confined to her bed.

The eldest of twelve children, Mrs. Martin has three sisters and a brother still living nearby: Mrs. L. E. Giles, Mrs. Isabelle Grady, and Mrs. Florence Wooldridge, all of this county, plus E. P. Martin, of Lynchburg. 'I was a Martin married to a Martin,' she said.

Her husband, Samuel Richard Martin, was a carpenter and farmer. Mrs. Martin smiled and said it was a fine day when they got "two horses and two cows.' She remembers some fine times at the old village of Appomattox Court House where she went to church and Sunday School. She is a Methodist.

Six of her nine children survived infancy. Now she has sixteen grandchildren. One grandson, Kermit Mann, has completed 20 years service in the Army. Another granddaughter and grandson, W. H. Mann, Jr., and Mrs. Selma Wilmer, of Lynchburg, come regularly to visit.

Mrs. Martin's log home has a TV set. A light sleeper, she used to enjoy Jack Paar late at night, but now seems to have difficulty finding a favorite TV Star to watch. Among her prized possessions are two photographs over her bed — one of her mother, and another of a daughter, Mrs. Ada Mann, now deceased.

A fairly quiet celebration has been planned for today, but Mrs. Mann said she is sure there would be several friend and family members ever to help celebrate. "I've had lots of birthdays,' said Mrs. Martin with a smile as she posed for pictures.

Appomattox's younger generation is forward - minded. Local Attorney Harry Gordon Lawson has been named to a special study committee for Virginia's Young Democratic Clubs. Mrs. Edwin Cawthorne has served as national committee woman from Virginia in that organization. And Frank McCraw, formerly of Appomattox, keeps his progressive pace in Republican political circles.

HD Women Will Meet April 15

District III Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs will meet at the Johns Auditorium Hampden - Sydney College, Prince Edward County, April 15. Prince Edward Home Demonstration members will be hostesses for a coffee hour preceding the 10 a.m. program which will last until 1 p.m. lunch. Mrs. Becky Carter, of the Clover Hill Club in Appomattox will conduct the devotional program.
